This 2^{1/2} hour training seminar consists of two parts:

Part 1 provides information for those involved in the day-to-day sale and service of alcohol, including owners, managers, bartenders, servers and security staff. It will focus on:

- The AGCO's role in the regulation of the liquor industry and your obligations under the Liquor Licence Act and its Regulations
- Responsible selling and serving of alcohol in the licensed establishment
- Where liquor may be served, sold and consumed

Part 2 is for owners and managers of liquor licensed establishments and focuses on:

- The new risk-based licensing system
- Compliance with the liquor laws and why it is necessary
- Keeping your liquor licence in good standing, and making changes to your licensed establishment
- Advertising requirements and guidelines including the pricing and promotion of liquor
- Defining relationships with manufacturers' representatives/licensed representatives

Please arrive 15 minutes early to confirm attendance and receive seminar materials.
